

Vice President - Commercial Loan Officer Testimonial

"In my many years of banking, I have been in contact and worked with many recruiters. Most seem to be in it for themselves and the next paycheck; however, Management Recruiters of Newburgh was focused on the fit and the needs of both the individual and the client. A big key to success is surrounding yourself with successful people and finding a position that fits with your personal path to success. Management Recruiters took it upon themselves to find that fit without jeopardizing the future of either party. I am sure the employees at Management Recruiters of Newburgh look forward to their paychecks; however, they focus more on the personal relationship rather than the dollar value of the sale. "
